

ABOLITION OF THE SUBMARINES MAY BE PEACE LEAGUE'S DECREE

Even Use for Defensive Duty Within 3 Mile Limit.

Meets With Disapproval of Majority of Conferees.

Overwhelming Sentiment of British and Americans is in Favor of Total Abolition of Submarines.

(By Associated Press)

London, February 3.—The abolition of submarines as warships may be decided upon by the League of Nations during conferences the coming week, according to the Paris correspondent of the Mail.

It is said this was one of several understandings reached Friday between President Wilson and Col. E. M. House, General Smuts and Lord Robert Cecil, and will probably be proposed among the first planks of the platform at the sessions this week, during which it is hoped the league constitution may be definitely formed.

British and American delegates representing the biggest naval powers are said to have sounded all opinion on this point. It was suggested by some that the submarine might be used defensively within the three mile limit but the overwhelming sentiment was that the U-boat must be abolished outright.

"After scrapping the submarines," the correspondent says, "it is understood recommendations will be made that economic weapons take the place of all other weapons in future wars."

Regarding the disarmament the league will endeavor to work out a scheme by which the armaments of all nations will be gradually curtailed to a point decided upon as being necessary.

GERMAN COLONIAL POSSESSIONS; SUBJECT OF DEBATE

At the Paris Peace Congress a reported secret treaty between England and Japan has complicated the disposition of the German colonial possessions. By the treaty Japan would take over the German islands north of the equator, while the British would take the colonies south of the equator. The map indicates the German possessions on both sides of the equator, printed in black. By the international plan before the congress all such secret treaties will give way before the League of Nations and the German colonies placed under the guardianship of the league, which will appoint one of its members to administer them.

HINES OPPOSED TO GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP OF THE RAILROADS

Does Not Believe Five Year Extension Means Permanent Control.

Believes Reformed Private Ownership Will Give Better Service.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, February 3.—Director General Hines, testifying today before the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee for the first time since his appointment as railroad head, declared he did not believe in government ownership but in a few big companies, subject to government supervision.

"I do not believe there is anything in the argument that a five year extension of government operation would necessarily mean government ownership," Mr. Hines said.

"I do not personally believe in government ownership. I believe there can be a form of radically reconstructed private ownership with such close government supervision including government representatives on the boards of directors as will give the public all the benefits of government ownership."

TO AVOID DIFFICULTY.

At the same time it will preserve the benefits of private and self interested initiative and will avoid the political difficulties which are inseparable from government ownership.

"To permit development of a comprehensive and permanent solution Mr. Hines renewed Mr. McAdoo's recommendation for a five year extension of government control and explained if this is not done it would be best for all interests concerned to relinquish government control without waiting for the expiration of the 21 months period provided by law.

Few Strikes But Situation is a Tense One.

(By Associated Press)

London, February 3.—The strike fever which has become epidemic in the United Kingdom reached London today and the present week promises to be a critical one for the metropolis.

There have been few strikes in this city during the last few weeks but the seriousness of the situation was not brought directly home to Londoners until this morning when they found the entrances to the principal tube stations closed to them owing to the decision of the employees not to move trains today unless a half-hour London interval were allowed them in their new eight-hour day. WOULD PLACE INDEMNITIES OF GERMANY IN COMMON FUND

Senor Crespi Says Sinking Fund Will Enable Germany to Pay Interest and Eventually "Pay Out."

All Enemy States To Pay In Proportion to Wealth.

(By Associated Press)

Paris, February 2.—A universal tax, the proceeds of which would be put into a common fund along with the indemnities Germany should be made to pay, is proposed by Senor Crespi of the Italian delegation to the peace conference, in the proposition he has made for the establishment of a "single financial front."

The tax would furnish interest on that part of the debts of the allies which Germany has not paid and provide a sinking fund for ultimately cancelling the debts.

Senor Crespi, who said his proposal had been well received by allied ministers, declared his great point is that the Central Empires as a whole must be forced to compensate the allies for war damage suffered.

The responsibility was collective, he said, and all enemy states would have to pay in proportion to their wealth.

YANKEES WANT FRESH EGGS TO KEEP 'EM GOING

(By Associated Press)

New York, February 3.—Eggs in any style, ice cream of any quality and an American woman to serve them—that sums up the requirements necessary to keep the American soldier happy overseas not that he has finished the job for which he left home judging from letters received by the woman's canteen division of the Young Men's Christian Association. If the American woman is there, the soldier will forego if necessary the eggs and the ice cream.

More than 1000 women are now overseas in "Y" uniform, it is announced.

Mrs. Rebecca Ely, of New York City who was sent to France in the latter part of 1917, tells a story that begins with one boy bringing her a present to show his appreciation of many things she had done for him. "You must promise to eat all this yourself, Mrs. Ely," he said. "It's a surprise."

The "surprise" proved to be what was a rare treat in France—a half dozen fresh eggs. Eggs were then being sold, when anyone was lucky enough to get them at all, at 12 francs a dozen. Mrs. Ely went back to the barracks carrying the eggs. An orderly came out to meet her and said that a sick officer was asking for her, and would she please come. She went and found a very depressed patient.

"What's the use, Mrs. Ely? You couldn't give me what I want," grumbled the officer, in reply to her questions.

"Maybe I could, try and see."

"Nope, they don't grow in these parts. The only thing I really want is a couple of poached eggs. That's what I'd have if I were home."

"All right," said Mrs. Ely, producing her treasures to a very astonished young man. "How would some tea go with that order?"

So for three days she made tea and poached eggs on toast for him, with her own hands, just as he would have had them at home. At the end of that time he was so much better and more cheerful that he was able to mess in the barracks.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

Writing to his sister, Miss Bertha Hatfield, Sergt. Earl A. Hatfield, H Company, 166th, at Dampfeld, Germany, declares that he is in good health, enjoying himself immensely and hopes to get back home soon, although he could stand being away a year yet if necessary, as he is having an abundance to eat and the fighting is at an end. With three other Sergeants he sleeps on feather beds each night, and believes that the Germans with whom they are billeted would give the Americans their last bite if they thought they wanted it. "When we go into a German home the women hurry to get us something to eat, and the man is ready to talk about the war; every man will declare that the Americans are true blue," says Sergt. Hatfield.

Mrs. James Curl recently had a letter from her son, Raymond, from Oberwinter, Germany in which he states that he was on the hike for nearly a month before landing at Oberwinter, on the Rhine, where the scenery is most beautiful, and where he is expecting to remain until next Spring.

Sergeant Sherman Hidy, Co. A, 59th U. S. Inf., now stationed at Earnst, Germany, writing to his mother, Mrs. James Hidy, says that while he is in Germany he is ready to leave any time for the good old U. S. A., as Earnst is about the size of Staunton and the troops are not permitted to go to nearby cities. Condition of the troops is good, he says, and they are comfortably located in the homes with the German people who treat them royally and are much pleased with the Americans. Of the eight months' service at the front, the last one prior to writing on December 30 was the hardest of them all because of the constant marching and innumerable hardships, he declares. He has had no pay since last June, and constant moving about has prevented him receiving mail.

Fred P. Worrell, of General Hospital 38, East View, New York, writes to his mother, Mrs. M. J. Worrell, that he probably will be stationed at the hospital several months. He has been stationed at Lytle, Ga., prior to being sent to East View.

Brestenau, Germany, was the location of C. M. Lee, Battery C, 324 F. A. H., when he last wrote to his mother, Mrs. Lida E. Lee, R. F. D. No. 8, this city. "It would seem that here we would have nothing to be thankful for, but He is everywhere, and that the sacredness of this day (Christmas) is for the spiritual and moral uplift of all," declares Lee. Cordial treatment by the natives is mentioned by Lee, who also states that everyone in the German town in which they are located is rejoicing that the war is at an end.

Enclosed with a letter to his sister, Mrs. C. A. Dray, Sergt. Earl Hatfield sends a copy of the Rainbow Reveille—the first copy reaching The Herald for several months. It is dated December 25th, and published at Oberwinter, Germany.

Sergt. Ed Williams, Headquarters Co., 145th U. S. Infantry, writing to his mother in this city from Isenheim, Belgium, under date of December 25, describes at some length the shifting about he experienced during the last few months of the war, and how he went through some of the thickest of the fray unscathed, although having many miraculous escapes from death by machine gun bullets, shrapnel, high explosives, gas, and in fact every known device which the Huns used against the Americans and other troops. Night marches, rides in motor lorries and troop trains, long sieges in the front lines, days and nights without rest while subjected to the most strenuous strains, are recounted interestingly. He was with the signal detachment of the Third Battalion, and was in the Argonne Woods sector during the terrible struggles there when the Americans blasted their way through masses of defenses, and where the Yankees won their way by sheer force of undaunted nerve, grit and ingenuity. Later his battalion was switched to the Belgium front and did some hard work there in pushing Fritz back until the armistice stopped the war.

HOW JAPANESE DEAL WITH THE LABOR PROBLEM

Tokio, January 3.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—The labor question is receiving wide attention in Japan. The Home Office of the Imperial Government has established a Relief Works Committee to deal with the problem of unemployment due to the cessation of war work. A firm policy is favored on the ground that freedom of holding meetings does not tend to lessen labor discontent, and that, in Japan, permission to organize unions does not seem as promising as the establishment of a Labor Arbitration Court.

Meanwhile a radical and interesting step has been taken by K. Matsukata, president of the Kawasaki Dock Co., of Kobe, who is distributing about $5,000,000 profits at the end of the year, has allotted three-fourth to his workmen and other employees as against one-fourth to the directors of the Company. Mr. Matsukata is a graduate of Yale and the eldest son of Marquis Matsukata, one of the four remaining Genro or Elder Statesmen of the Empire.

Japan's one labor organization, the Yuaikai, has sent its president, Bunji Suzuki, to a Labor Congress in Europe. He is pledged to work for free immigration of laborers, which his society regards as the one question of vital importance to Japan. The Yuaikai has about 30,000 members and has been promoted by the American Unitarian Mission in Tokio.

STEADY INCREASE HAS MARKED YEAR

London, January 2.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—The steady rise in wage rates and the recognition of the eight hour day to railway workers and to the engineering industry has been the outstanding feature of the industrial year, says a labor correspondent of the Yorkshire POST.

The advance in wages of fifteen principal industries from January to November 30, affecting 5,557,600 workers totals 2,138,300 pounds weekly. In addition advance have been granted to other workers making a net increase of 3,000,000 pounds weekly or 156,000,000 pounds a year.

GOOD INTENTS ARE QUESTIONED

Vladivostok, December 27.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Distrust of the good intentions of the Allies in seeking control of the Trans-Siberian railway is voiced by the organ here of the Social Democrats. It says:

"The Allies have decided to improve our transportation system. They are taking the railways into their hands, the English as far as Chita, the Japanese the Transbaikalian railway and the Americans the line from Irkutsk to the front. We cannot tell what this friendly assistance is going to cost Russia."

"The Allies are making agreements among themselves; we are out of the deal. As long as we continue our internal carnage and amuse ourselves with 'recognitions' and 'coup d'etats' of governments the Allies will be masters in our own house."

News of Interest to Women

The February number of "The Musical Monitor," in an interesting column devoted to "echoes and re-echoes from the national victory songs," includes Washington Court House in the reports which were gratifying tributes to the success of this movement launched by the Women's Committee Council of National Defense. From east, west, north and south, these reports came in entirely too enthusiastic for suppression. The Monitor's report from Washington Court House says: "The High School auditorium was filled to its utmost capacity Thanksgiving afternoon, when the people of this and adjoining communities gathered together with thankful hearts for the Victory Sing which was a world-wide expression of rejoicing. Under the splendid supervision of Miss Sheen the Glee Clubs led the vast audience in a chorus of song. Everybody joined in, and hearts were filled with the real spirit of Thanksgiving as never before."

The Saturday afternoon meeting of the American Committee on Devastated France, held at the Federated Club room, went far toward establishing this important organization in relief reconstruction work upon a permanent basis, and the enthusiastic response of over a hundred women, largely representative of the women's clubs and societies of the town and county, removed any doubt concerning difficulty in effecting such an organization. Two large delegations were present from Jeffersonville and Bloomington and joined in the expression of their willingness to support the movement.

Following an explanatory talk and appeal by the President, Mrs. Josephine Kee, a number of women gave voice to that unselfish spirit, developed during the war and which will again find exemplification in this work for our Sister Republic.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, February 8th at 2:30 p. m., when it is hoped to have Mrs. Edward L. Buchwalter of Springfield, again present.

The Executive Board of the local branch is composed of the chairman of all Women's organizations in the county with the officers. President, Mrs. Josephine Kier; Vice President, Mrs. Carrie B. Willis; Treasurer, Miss Jean Howat; Secretary, Miss Elizabeth Johnson. The help of every woman in our county is most earnestly desired.

Miss Helen Gertrude Greene, daughter of the late Mr. Harry Greene, and Mrs. Greene, now with her, is winning quite a reputation as a talented toe dancer. Born and spending the greater part of her life in this city, Miss Greene's many friends will be following with interest the Kenyon Republican and the Scioto Gazette, which gives insight to the success with which she is entering her new career.

Miss Helen Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Greene, of East Main street, who is a most talented toe dancer, aided the Patriotic League in their entertainment at the Red Cross Convalescent House Friday. Miss Greene will also dance at the Main Y building Monday evening, February 3rd.

Monday and Tuesday of last week she danced at Kanton, Ohio, and the Repository of that city thus notes her work:

"Miss Helen Greene, the graceful little toe dancer who has delighted so many spectators, both at the Opera House and at last evening's ball game was instrumental in raising a magnificent sum for the soldier boys' smokes at Camp Sherman.

The oft mooted question as to whether a wife has a right to go through her husband's pockets was decided favorably by a New York magistrate, in the Westside Court, to his sorrow.

His wife read the ruling in the paper and proceeded to assert her right. It was a sadder and a wiser magistrate, who stepped into Court the next day and said to a reporter:

"It was a mistake to print that story. Last night I left my money on the bureau and this morning I found my wife helping herself. When I protested she read my own ruling from your paper. What could I do?"

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brock, of near Bookwalter, who are moving to Grassy Point in the near future, were delightfully entertained with cards and dancing, Friday evening.

The affair was in the nature of a neighborhood farewell party and the great regret which is felt over Mr. and Mrs. Brock's removal, was the only shadow upon an evening of gay pleasure.

Six tables of players engaged in progressive euchre. The head prizes going to Mrs. Otto Allen and Mr. Frank Marshall.

A delicious luncheon, in which a pink and green color scheme was prettily introduced, followed the game and the evening was finished in dancing to Victrola music.

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Hankins, of Milledgeville, hospitably entertained Sunday evening with an elegant dinner, of four courses, red and green the color scheme employed. Victrola music was a feature of an enjoyable evening.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Hoppess, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Powers, Mrs. Martha Yarger.

Another of the jolly informal dances which are periodically enjoyed by the office and salesforce of the Dahl-Campbell plant, was held Saturday night at their own club rooms. The floor was in splendid condition; the music, piano and drums, furnished by Mr. James Whelpley and Hugh Perrill, fine, and refreshments served to the completion of the evening's pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Estel Smith entertained Sunday. Mrs. Elmer McPherson, daughter, Miss Edith, Mrs. Bert Moon, of Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Pensyl.

IT'S DIFFERENT

Men sometimes prefer to belong to a certain lodge, organization, or political party just because someone else does, but in the matter of their laundry—their collars and cuffs—they prefer to have done where service is most satisfactory. That's one reason why our collar and shirt work is constantly on the increase—it's different.

VALLEY TO QUIT THE RACING GAME

Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 3.—Oscar Valley, the well known Derby, Ohio, trainer, who has been a familiar sight at the half mile meetings here and in the some years, purchased a 400 acre farm in the vicinity of West Liberty.

He will tell what he is going to do next. He is going to desert the racing game and raise stock for a second varied career. Valley sold his racing plant and land near Derby last fall and destroyed the place then he has been looking for a new place. It is said that he will dispose of all of his light harness horses, including Bob Commander, illustrations 2:13. He will try to sell them as and applied private sale and, if not successful will consign them to the auction block.

MAIL TRUCK IN DITCH SATURDAY

The Columbus Hillsboro mail truck which takes daily mail from Columbus to Hillsboro to this city, Hillsboro and return, went over a considerable embankment near the Palm creek bridge three miles north of Granville Saturday afternoon, and it required several hours work to replace it on the road.

The mishap occurred at the point where the road is being widened a turn east of the bridge, and the truck turned over, while its wheels continued to run until the driver shut off the engine. The driver escaped with a sprained ankle.

Present Disagreements

Undoubtedly the peace conference is making progress toward a final agreement which will meet the demands of the participants—we must presume that and we do believe it—but from this distance there are times when it seems that the disagreements are multiplying and the gulf between the conflicting interests is widening.

We must remember, when these times of discouragement come, however, that the differences which the peace council is seeking to do away with are fundamental and admit of no compromise.

The ideals which the delegates are seeking to incorporate into the final treaty of peace involve a complete revolution in thought and action by nearly every nation of the old world.

It is generally conceded now that the injection of American ideals into the war was one of the great causes of success. America's unselfish course, the uprising of one hundred millions of people pledging their all—American lives and American wealth to the last life and the last dollar—in defense of their ideals, of freedom and of humanity against that or any subsequent attack of organized selfishness and greed, while it ran through the allied army lines like a current of new life and struck terror to the foe, carried with it the obligation that recognition and adoption of those sacred ideals would be made at the peace table.

President Wilson has recognized the difficulties which the discharge of that obligation entail and has refrained from any loud or insistent claims, preferring that developments present the difficulties and the honesty of the participating nations the incentive for their fulfillment.

The present disagreements indicate clearly the sincerity of the delegates and point, unerringly, it seems to a final adjustment in which the old selfishness of nations and peoples will be absent.

The daily clashes as new ideals battle for recognition with the old and dangerous precedents are, after all, a hopeful and encouraging sign of final success.

POEM FOR TODAY

AT TWILIGHT
SHE

I sit here in the garden, dear, and watch the fountain play,
And ask each little ripple to bear my thoughts away
To you, somewhere in France.

The whippoorwill is calling through the jasmine to its mate,
As my heart is calling yours and praying, dear, to fate
To guard you somewhere in France.

And evenings just at twilight, as all other love-mates do,
My soul takes wing, flies abroad, and rests dear heart, with you,
Somewhere in France.

HE

I'm sitting in my dugout, dear, and waiting for my chow—
I think they'll get it through tonight—the Boche is quiet now, Somewhere in France.

We gave 'em beaucoup shells today, we'll give 'em gas tonight,
And I'm oiling up my rifle to carry on the fight,
Somewhere in France.

But through all this great adventure at twilight every eve,
My heart pleads guilty to the charge of absent without leave—
Somewhere in France.

NATIONS SET FORTH CLAIMS FOR "SPOILS"

Buffer States and Sixty-six Billions Francs Part of French Claims

Conference Must Untangle Conflicting Claims

(By Associated Press)

Paris, February 3.—The delegates of the five great powers are now in a position to compare clearly their own aspirations and those of all their allied friends and to see the differences that must be reconciled. The maximum of hopes, often overlapping, has been told freely and it remains for the peace conference to adjust them into a co-ordinated whole. The desires of the several countries as presented may be comprised thus:

France—"France wants, first of all, France, Alsace-Lorraine unconditionally and the right to discuss and ultimately to fix the French frontiers in their relation to the Rhine, which may require the creation of buffer states. One of these will be the Palatinate and another Rhenish Prussia. France also desires to annex the basin of the Sarre River, which might be called a reannexation."

"France will insist that so far as the left bank of the Rhine further to the north is concerned, the conference should forbid military works of any kind—barracks, bridge, forts and fortresses—in that zone. The feeling is that the people inhabiting that zone should be free to decide for themselves whether they wish to join France, form an independent state or return to Germany."

"The French bill for reparation is not yet complete, but it has been announced in the chamber of deputies that it will be about 66,000,000,000 francs."

"The French government does not ask for a protectorate in Syria in the ordinary sense, but it considers that the population there is too advanced to make a protectorate necessary, but France, on account of her traditional interests in that country, feels that she should be called upon to exercise some sort of guardianship or guidance until Syria should be fully able to govern herself."

Great Britain—Great Britain's delegation believe that a society of nations is desirable and obtainable, and that it must be established by the proper peace conference. She advances no continental purposes other than those of a permanent and just peace under the principle of self-determination, and that there shall be international freedom of transit by railroads and waterways, which is Great Britain's general definition of freedom of commerce in time of peace.

Great Britain will take mandatory power over the German islands south of the equator for Australia and over German Southwest Africa for the Union of South Africa. Shee will also have the mandate over German East Africa and some parts of Arabia, and she has particular claims in this respect over Mesopotamia. Great Britain will enter a pool with the other allies in the matter of indemnities, especially reparation for air raid damages and shipping losses.

Italy—Italy asks for the Trentino as far as the Brenner Pass, including the whole of the northern Tyrol; Trieste, Istria, Fiume, Zara, Sebenico, the larger part of the Dalmatian Islands, Avlona and its hinterland, a protectorate over Albania, possession of the islands of the Aegean which were taken from Turkey during the Tripolitan war, and the province of Adalia if France and England should take territory in Asia Minor.

The Italian contention is that the Dalmatian Islands and such parts of the Dalmatian Coast as are not assigned to Italy shall be neutralized. Should France and England extend their colonial possessions in Africa, Italy desires to enlarge her possessions in Eritrea and Tripoli.

RESTRICTIONS ON FOOD ARE SWEEP ASIDE

(By Associated Press)

Washington, February 2.—The most sweeping removal of restrictions upon the exportation of foodstuffs made since the signing of the armistice have been announced by the war trade board. Commodities removed from the export conservation list were barley, corn and rye, including flour and meal made from these grains, oats and oat products, brewers' grains, bran and middlings, beans, dried and split peas, sugar and hydrogenated cotton seed oil.

The articles constitute a majority of the food items on the restricted list and their removal is effective immediately. Licenses to export them will be granted freely to all destinations, including Great Britain, France, Italy and Belgium. Heretofore such exports to these allied countries were made exclusively by the food administration's grain corporation and the Wheat Export Company.

Attention was called to the fact that wheat and wheat flour remain on the restricted list. There was no indication when the embargo on those commodities would be removed but it was said that it probably would remain in force until the government's agreement with the farmers for a maximum price on the 1919 wheat crop had expired.

Removal of the embargo on the other grains was expected by some officials to stabilize prices and relieve what was described as a congested market. An advance in the price of corn was looked for by reason of the fact that prices fell sharply several weeks ago when removal of the embargo against the importation of Argentine corn was announced.

MATERIAL AND MORAL SUPPORT GREATEST NEED

Military Need of Russia Said by General Boldereff to be the Least Vladivostok, December 20.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press).—General Boldereff, member of the erstwhile Ufa directorate which was abolished by the Omsk cabinet at the time of Admiral Kolchak's elevation to the supreme rulership favors moral and material support from Allies to Russia, instead of military aid on the ground that a people or faction of a population which is overcome by military force is inevitably a source of future trouble. He says the Bolsheviki must be suppressed, but by Russians rather than by foreigners, and by moral suasion and a campaign of education rather than by force of arms. General Boldereff would like the Allies to hold the Bolsheviki at bay until a Russian army can be formed which will be able to cope with them. "What Russia requires now," he said, "is only that the Allies give sufficient military aid, backed by moral and material aid, to enable the saner elements in the population to master their foes and take control of affairs."

General Boldereff declines to have any thing to do with the government as at present constituted in spite of urgent invitations to align himself with the new order of affairs.

The coup d'etat which elevated Admiral Kolchak to a virtual dictatorship of the Omsk government in his opinion was an unfortunate development which might have been avoided had each element in the Omsk coalition been willing to make concessions. The Ufa government was handicapped by lack of funds and the only way to make their influence felt appeared to be by joining forces with the Omsk government and striving for a plan upon which they could co-operate. There was lack of confidence from the start and Chernov former Minister of Agriculture in the Kerensky cabinet who was attached to the coalition government in a minor capacity precipitated the coup by charging the Right element with bad faith and calling upon the Social Revolutionists to rise.

General Boldereff was at the front when other members of the directorate were arrested. He was invited to associate himself with the Kolchak forces but declined.

RECEIVES WORD MANY MEMBERS FAMILY MURDERED

Rev. D. H. Rejy Learns That Wife and Son Are Safe But Six Other Kinfolk Fell Victim To Turkish Massacres and Were Butchered in Armenia.

The sympathy of the community will go out in overflowing measure to Rev. D. H. Rejy, pastor of the McNaair Memorial Presbyterian Church, upon reading the following letter.

For long months Rev. Rejy has lived in tense anxiety, knowing that his wife and son, his parents and immediate family were in the band of Armenians subject to such outrages at the hands of the Turks and the recent massacre added immeasurably to his distress.

At last the silence of uncertainty is broken, and the news from the far distant Orient is told in this letter:

"Editor Washington Herald.

"Dear Friend: "My many friends in Washington C. H. ask me often in sympathy and very kindly about my folks in Armenia. I appreciate their sympathy very much indeed.

"I have just received some sad and glad news after anxious waiting for three years. Glad, because my wife and son are living. Sad, because my dear father and mother, the wife of one of my brothers and three children of my four brothers have been murdered by the unspeakable and terrible Turks.

"So that, while 18 persons were exiled from our immediate family circle, 6 of them have been killed and the rest, 12 persons, are in a condition of desperate need, sorrow and suffering.

"The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away;

Blessed be the name of the Lord." "I shall go to them.

But they shall not return to me, 'Jerusalem, my happy Home, Would God I were in thee! Would God my woes were at an end, Thy joys that I might see!'

D. H. REJY."

FINE SERIES OF MEETINGS CLOSE SUNDAY NIGHT

One of the most helpful series of meetings ever held in First Presbyterian Church of this city, conducted by Rev. H. N. Faulconer, D. D., of Hillsboro, with the assistance of the acting pastor, Rev. J. L. McWilliams, closed Sunday night. The fortnight's earnest meetings cannot fail to be far reaching in influence, and the strong appeals to lead the Christian life, as they were presented by Rev. Faulconer, reawakened the zeal of church members and also resulted in a number of accessions to the church.

The Sunday morning service was largely attended and at night and torium and Sunday School room were packed with a magnificent audience—an audience whose absorbed attention was a testimonial to the evangelist as well as to the atmosphere of spirituality created through his efforts.

Dr. Faulconer is a fine type of man as well as an able preacher. His meetings were entirely devoid of sensationalism and the response which came was in answer to the deep, quiet call of the spirit.

The Sunday morning subject was on, "The Blood of Jesus," Dr. Faulconer bringing out very beautifully the cleansing power of Jesus blood, washing away every sin, no matter how black or vicious.

His evening discourse presented with great power, "The Second Coming of Christ" the minister brought a new viewpoint to bear upon this Second Coming, entirely unheralded and of such stupendous importance, and impressed the scriptural advice "Be ye also ready."

Following the sermon the invitation to become followers of Christ in what ever church home desired was extended by both ministers and met with response.

A free will offering was also taken, the only collection asked for except the regular Sunday collections during the meetings. Hon. C. A. Reid, at both services presented the free will offering and anticipated the response gladly made by the people in return for the generous services of Dr. Faulconer.

Mr. F. L. McDonald, of Wilmington, who had so kindly loaned his sweet tenor voice, to a number of his solos meriting the appreciated his solos meriting the appreciated comment they aroused.

The choir throughout the meetings has rendered efficient service. Mr. R. R. Kibler was soloist Sunday morning. At night Misses Woodward and Kibler, Messrs Kibler and Paul added a beautiful quartet to the music.

NEW SECRETARY OF "Y" ON JOB

Mr. F. M. Barber the new Y. M. C. A. Secretary, is now on duty and is already planning activities calculated to make the Young Men's Christian Association the usual popular place it was prior to the war.

Mr. Barber is a young man of sterling qualities and with a pleasant smile that already has won him many friends in this city. He has been making a careful survey of matters pertaining to the Y. M. C. A. and within a few days expects to announce definite plans and put them into execution at once.

Mr. Barber is greatly pleased with the facilities at hand, and with Washington generally.

At the present time he is stopping with his family at the Cherry Hotel but will move to Dr. Howell property within a short time.

LOCAL BOYS GET APPOINTMENTS AT PEACE CONFERENCE

Word received from Major Bell G. Allen, who is doing Provost Marshal duty at St. Aignan, Novos, France, says that he has succeeded in getting Sergeant Albert Briggs and Harold McLean, who were on detached duty, appointed to clerkships at the Peace Conference, and the two former bank clerks of this city are now supposed to be engaged in their new duties in Paris, and are getting at least a glimpse into the great international event upon which the eyes of the world are directed, and which will stand out in centuries to come as one of the greatest epochs in the history of the human race.

The two Sergeants had applied for duty with their former organizations and when this was found impossible because all places were filled, and their next duties were rather uncertain, they were quite naturally elated when the appointment was made through the influence of Major Allen.

GRACE CHURCH SERVICES DRAW BIG AUDIENCES

The Sunday services at Grace M. E. Church in which Rev. J. W. Mahood delivered three of the most forceful and convincing sermons ever heard in the Grace Church, attracted large audiences, and as usual all were deeply impressed by his clear logic and advance thought as he expounded the word of God. His total lack of sensationalism has won him a host of friends.

Sunday morning his theme was "The Lights That Fail." In the afternoon he chose for his text "The greatest work in the world," and in the evening "The Books Opened" was the text of a powerful sermon.

Tonight Dr. Mahood will tell what an earthquake did, his sermon being founded on his many and varied experiences during the great earthquakes and fire which destroyed the city of San Francisco. Dr. Mahood being in the city at the time.

Each of Dr. Mahood's sermons are punctuated by graphic illustrations usually taken from life, and applied in a masterly manner to the theme of hand.

Following the Sunday night sermon a large number of persons accepted the invitation to assemble in the Epworth League room for an after meeting of deep interest. Included with these were many who had stood as an indication that they were not leading a Christian life but wished to do so.

In his sermon Sunday night Dr. Mahood declared that one cannot safely follow the dictates of conscience unless the conscience is quickened by Jesus Christ, and that the conscience is only the voice of God when educated to the laws of God. "Conscience is the sleepless detective which is always at our heels," he declared.

Regarding influence, he stated that no one can live a single day unto himself, and that his influence goes forth each day for good or evil—that one's influence each day helps some one up or pulls them down.

OHIO BOUGHT 62,382 AUTOS LAST YEAR; WHAT'S AHEAD?

Auto Registration in Each County for 1918.

Ohio rolled up an even 413,000 automobile registrations in 1918, according to statistics just given out by State Registrar W. A. McCurdy. This is an increase of 17 per cent over the number of automobiles owned in the state the year previous, when there were 350,618 registrations.

"If Ohio bought 62,382 motor cars last year, in spite of war conditions as to production as well as to buy, there is hardly a limit to the prediction of what may come this year," was the comment of Fred H. Caley, secretary of the Ohio State Automobile Association.

Caley said he believed the limit would be set only by the ability of the factories to produce enough cars to meet the demand. He pointed out that this year there would have to be faced not only the normal demand, but part of the demand from the year preceding which was suppressed because of war-time conditions.

"Ohio is emerging from the mud, so far as highways are concerned, traffic conditions are improving, it is becoming more and more desirable and simpler to own and operate a car in this state. With our boundless wealth, industrial and agricultural, with proper conditions, I believe it will be only a short time until Ohio will pass the half-million mark in automobile ownership and succeed New York as the premier state in automobiles."

SYMPATHY FOR THE WOMEN OF INDIA SHOWN

Queen Mary of England Voices Tribute To Indian Women for Part In Great War.

London, January 30.—(Associated Press Correspondence)—Deep sympathy for the women of India and interest in steps taken for their advancement are voiced by Queen Mary in a message she has sent to all women of the Indian Empire. The Queen also paid tribute to the Indian women for the part they played in urging their husbands, sons and brothers to render faithful service in the war. Queen Mary wrote:

"A short time ago I sent a message of thankfulness and hope to the women of the Empire. I wish now to add to it a special message to the women of India. If my words are brief and simple, they are from the heart.

"I know that by the custom of their country and the time-honored traditions by which they are reverently bound, the women of India are by the most part prevented from undertaking those public and industrial tasks which their sisters in other parts of the Empire, when the man-power of the country went forth in its defense, were able to discharge. In the seclusion and solitude of their homes the women of India have had to bear the bitterness of partings, to suffer bereavement and privation, to live through days and months of doubt and anxiety in ignorance of the fortunes of war, and without tidings of their absent ones.

"I rejoice to think that many influences are at work which make for the greater well-being and advancement of the women of India. I watch with the deepest interest and sympathy every step that is taken to bring the means of education and knowledge more within their reach, to provide greater facilities for their obtaining proper medical relief through the agency of their own sex in women's hospitals or in the privacy of their own homes, to widen their interests and activities, and to secure to them the adequate protection of the law.

"I wish, with all my heart, that every success will crown these efforts."

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. P. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

U.S. TO RETURN DUTCH SHIPS IMMEDIATELY

Half a Million Tons of Dutch Shipping is Requisitioned by America to be Released

(By Associated Press)
Washington, February 3.—Dutch ships requisitioned by the American government during the war and now operated by the shipping board will be unconditionally returned to their land as rapidly as they reach American ports at the conclusion of their present voyage. This announcement was made today by the war trade board, which has reached an agreement on the subject with the shipping board.

The Dutch ships were seized in American ports last March 20 by order of President Wilson, acting in the war emergency. There were 87 of the vessels, with an aggregate of 529,000 dead weight tons, but several of them were destroyed by enemy action or storms while in the service of the United States.

Under the agreement reached with the Dutch shipowners vessels destroyed were to be replaced either by money or by ships at option of the Dutch owners, and liberal rates for the use of the vessels were allowed. There was no information tonight as to the exact number of the ships that had been lost or whether payment would be in money or in American tonnage.

The war trade board's announcement said the release of the craft had been decided upon because the war emergency had passed and because of the wish of the board to return ships and trade to normal channels and conditions as quickly as possible.

Return of these vessels will mark the conclusion of protracted discussion and procedure relating to the question, which began soon after the U. S. entered the war. When President Wilson issued a proclamation on July 9, 1917, authorizing an embargo on shipments of essential materials to all countries, many Dutch ships were in American ports and they either had loaded or were ready to load materials against which the embargo was declared.

Permission for the vessels to depart was denied and soon afterwards Holland was informed by the American government had declared the embargo and asked to furnish detailed information as to her needs for food, fodder and raw materials. In the following October the Netherlands government sent a commission to the United States to negotiate an economic agreement.

A LETTER TO OHIO FARMERS

Farmers everywhere are becoming more and more interested in the Federal Farm Loan System, because they realize that the Federal Farm Loan Act gives them the only kind of a loan that is adapted to the farmers needs.

Instead of making loans for a few months or years, the loans under the Farm Loan System are made for 20 to 40 yrs. and all the worries connected with uncertain renewals are done away with. The loan is repaid in small semi-annual payments and can be said to never mature, because by keeping these payments up, the entire loan is paid off at the end of 20 years.

Under the Federal Farm Loan System the farmer is not allowed to pay anybody a commission. His land is appraised by an agent of the Federal Government and 50 per cent of the appraised value will be loaned to a man if he wants that much.

The Federal Farm Loan Act creates agencies all over the country to attend to the business of making these loans. I represent the Virginian Joint Stock Land Bank in this district and if you need a loan, I want to hear from you. Under our plan of operating, the farmer buys no stock in the bank, he does not have to join any organization and is reasonably certain to get his loan without any delay after he fills out his application blank.

I will be in Washington on Thursday afternoon and all day Friday, February 7th and 8th, at the Cherry Hotel for the purpose of meeting farmers who want loans under the Farm Loan Act. If you cannot call on me at this time, I will be glad to have you write me so that I can send you further information.

LAND VALUATIONS ARE DISCUSSED AT FARMERS MEETING

Executive Committeemen
And Other Farmers of Fayette Farm Bureau
Hold Session Saturday Afternoon.

Hog Cholera Prevention Is Discussed And Meeting
Is To Be Held.

February 1st, 1919.
The Farm Bureau of Fayette County Executive Committee, held its regular monthly meeting in Memorial hall, Saturday afternoon. Many members also were in attendance and lively discussion took place.
The topic that drew the most interest was with regard to the reappraisal of the lands this fall for the next 10 years. The question arose as to the values being based on the earning capacity for the past three years during the war, with prices abnormally high, or should this appraisal be on the values under normal conditions.

The consensus of the committee and those present was, that they are in for any equal appraisal with other counties and other classes of property for taxation.

The matter was also taken up with regard to a bill that is in preparation for the use of serum and virus for treating hogs. A committee was appointed to go into this matter with a man who will meet the hog men of Southern Ohio next Saturday at Xenia, to get their views.

The meeting adjourned to meet on Saturday, March 1st, in Memorial hall, at such time the whole county will be invited to hear the report of these committees and also discuss the best means of land valuations.

Reports showed that many new members had been added to the Farm Bureau in the past ten days, and indications are that this enrollment will be speedily increased.

PETROGRAD IS BOMBARDED

(By Associated Press)
Stockholm, February 3.—Petrograd has been bombarded by Kornstadt artillery and many people have been killed, according to travelers who are quoted to this effect by the Finnish papers. Serious disorders are prevailing in Petrograd.

The great fortress of Kornstadt, less than 20 miles west of Petrograd, at the head of the Gulf of Finland.

The Bolshevik forces were reported on January 23 last, in a dispatch from Helsinki, to be evacuating Petrograd and removing all their stores. The Bolshevik war minister, Trotsky, was said to be transferring his headquarters to Nizhni-Novgorod.

Bolshevik Advance
Vienna, February 2.—The advance of Bolshevik troops into the Ukraine has compelled the Ukrainian government to move the seat of its government from Kiev to Winitza, in Polovia, southwest of Kiev.
